

Department: Health Professions and Physical Therapy
 Chair: Dr. Gregory Frazer
 Participating Faculty: Dr. Frazer, T. Worrell,
L. Aciermo, J. Ludy and S. Douglass

Program Name & CIP Code: 51.0908 Level: BS-Cardiopulmonary Science

Example of Linkage between Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose, Departmental/Program Intended Outcomes/Objectives, Assessment Criteria and Procedures,
 Results, and Use of Results at our University

Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose	Departmental/Program Intended Outcomes/objectives	Assessment Criteria & Procedures	Assessment Results	Use of Result
UCF is a metropolitan university committed to providing the finest undergraduate education in Florida, achieving international prominence in key graduate educational and research programs, promoting a global perspective, fostering inclusiveness and diversity, and becoming America's leading partnership university. The mission of the Cardiopulmonary Sciences Program is to prepare graduates as competent and professional advanced Respiratory Care Practitioners (Respiratory Therapists) who will fill leadership, supervisory, and educator roles within the profession.	1. Graduates will demonstrate cognitive skills expected of the Respiratory Care Practitioner (Respiratory Therapist) in the following areas: - Clinical Data Management - Equipment - Therapeutic Procedures 2. Graduates will demonstrate the psychomotor skills expected of the Respiratory Care Practitioner (Respiratory Therapist) at the time of graduation. 3. Graduates will demonstrate the affective behavior expected of the Respiratory Care Practitioner (Respiratory Therapist).	1a. Ninety percent of the graduates will receive a passing score on their first attempt at the state licensure examination following graduation. 1b. Ninety percent of students will receive a passing score on the Terminal Clinical Evaluation on their first attempt during the last semester of the program. 2a. Ninety percent of graduates will be able to receive a passing score on the Terminal Clinical Evaluation administered during the last semester of the program. 2b. Ninety percent of employers will identify graduates as being clinically prepared on an Employer Survey at six months following graduation. 3a. Ninety percent of graduates will receive a passing score on the Terminal Clinical Evaluation on their first attempt during the last semester of the program. 3b. Ninety percent of employers will identify graduates as having the expected affective behaviors of the Respiratory Care Practitioner (Respiratory Therapist) on the Employer Survey at six months following graduation.	1a. The program graduates have had a passing rate of one hundred percent for the past three years. 1b. One hundred percent of students have received an acceptable score during the past three years. 2a. One hundred percent of students have received an acceptable score during the past three years. 2b. One hundred percent of employers have found graduates to be clinically prepared on an Employer Survey at six months following graduation. 3a. One hundred percent of students have received an acceptable score during the past three years. 3b. One hundred percent of employers have found graduates to be clinically prepared on an Employer Survey at six months following graduation.	1a. Target met. The curriculum has been reviewed with no revisions found necessary. Continue to monitor. 1b. Target met. Results shared with faculty. Continue to monitor. 2a. Target met. Results shared with faculty. Continue to monitor. 2b. Target met. Results have been shared with faculty and employers with no revisions of the curriculum found necessary. 3a. Target met. Results shared with faculty. Continue to monitor. 3b. Target met. Results have been shared with faculty and employers with no revisions of the curriculum found necessary. Continue to monitor.