

Program Name & CIP Code: 51.0706 Level: BS-Health Service Administration

Example of Linkage between Expanded Statement Of Institutional Purpose, Departmental/Program Intended Outcomes/Objectives, Assessment Criteria and Procedures,
 Results, and Use of Results at our University

Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose	Departmental/Program Intended Outcomes/objectives	Assessment Criteria & Procedures	Assessment Results	Use of Result
UCF is a metropolitan university committed to providing the finest undergraduate education in Florida, achieving international prominence in key graduate educational and research programs, promoting a global perspective, fostering inclusiveness and diversity, and becoming America's leading partnership university. The Department of Health Professions and Physical Therapy is committed to the delivery of a comprehensive program of teaching, research, and service. Its primary mission is to provide intellectual leadership through undergraduate and graduate programs of study in the health profession.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Graduates will be prepared for positions in the health profession upon completion of undergraduate program of study. Graduates of the program will find employment in the field. Graduates will be adequately prepared for advance study in the field of Health Services Administration. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Ninety percent of graduates will identify state they feel "well prepared" with their undergraduate program study when asked to respond to a Senior Survey conducted in their last semester of study. Ninety percent of graduates will indicate satisfaction when responding to an Alumni Survey at two years following graduation. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Eighty percent of graduates will state they have been employed in the field on an Alumni Survey at two years following graduation. Seventy-five percent of student internship written reports will be judged as "satisfactory critical analysis". Eighty percent of students will state they are prepared for graduate study during an Alumni Survey two years following graduation. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1996: Ninety percent of those responding felt that they were well prepared for the positions they sought. Changes to program content and teaching methods will be addressed to improve the program. Surveys were conducted in March with results analyzed in April. Of those responding, eighty-eight percent expressed satisfaction. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Surveys were conducted in March with results analyzed in April. Seventy-eight percent responded that they were employed in healthcare. Surveys were conducted in March with results analyzed in April. Results were inconclusive. Eighty-five percent felt they were prepared. Internship reports were analyzed by a Faculty committee during the month of March. Eighty-five percent of internship reports met criteria. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Target met. Results shared with faculty. Continue to monitor. Target not met. Health Administration is a new program. Further surveys will be done to provide additional information. This will assist in making corrections to curriculum and teaching methods. Continue to monitor. Target not met. This percent does not account for those attending graduate school. Continue to monitor. Target met. Continue to monitor. Target met. Strong indication of a successful internship program was found. Continue to monitor.